Notes:

1. The students are to report to their first exam for homeroom, prayer, and announcements, by 7:45 a.m.
2. Students must remain in the exam room for the entire period.
3. Students are not expected to come to school for a period that does not provide an exam. Students who are in school and not taking an exam, please remain in the locker room or cafeteria
4. Dress code is relaxed for exam week.
5. Students need to understand that this is not a vacation or relaxed time because of the different schedule. Please make good choices on how you spend your additional time in preparing for exams.
6. Students must take exams during the designated time. Any special requests go through the Vice Principal. Students should not request a final change for convenience. Attendance will be taken through the collection of the exams of missing students. Students should speak to their teachers to arrange make-up exams. First preference is that student make up exams with teachers.
7. Nashua buses will have routine AM pickups. Buses will arrive to pick up students for dismissal at: 12:00pm
8. The cafeteria will be open for breakfast and in between exams.
