About the Scholarship:

This scholarship was established by the children of Robert and Marlene Burke, and their grandchildren, Mitchell Burke, Bishop Guertin Class of 2013 and Sophie Adair, Bishop Guertin Class of 2019. Both parents, mom a 40 year teacher and dad, a community leader, small business entrepreneur, and great golfer, lived a life of servant leadership – in word and in deed. Deeply rooted in Christian virtues, they instilled the values of Faith, Family, Philanthropy and Forgiveness in their children. Both were firm believers in second chances, and overcoming adversity, championing the underdog. This scholarship will honor those students who have overcome significant challenges and who plan to major in education or a similar field of study.
